

Servants of the Living God

A brief lesson to serving Our Master.

Joshua 24:15 “Choose you whom you will serve this day....as for me and for my house, we will serve the Lord.”

As it is that Joshua asked this to the people of Israel, we should also ask ourselves this each and every day as it is that we face the dangers and threats against our souls daily. Will we serve God as he intends, or shall we serve the world?

This lesson will look at this question briefly, but with the urgency we all need to have about it. As it is that a servant serves, we are just that, not higher or master over another, but are meant to serve. Just as a hired servant works for whom they are hired, so shall we do, and should do. We work for the living God. Let us continue.

Total Service – To God

Lesson 1

A Good servant.....serves well.!

Lesson 2

A Servant’s Work Speaks for Itself

Lesson 3

Total Service – To God

Lesson 1

Some may think that service to God is only going to worship on Sunday mornings and evenings. Others think that just doing good will make them a servant in God's eyes. We will attempt to look in this lesson on what it is to be a servant of God, realizing that it takes more than both of these things to make a that servant well-pleasing in the eyes of God.

1. What is a servant? What is a servant of God?
2. Is the life of a child of God to serve or to be served?
3. In what capacity then are we His servants?
4. If it is that we all serve God differently, does that mean some can sit back while others work?
5. If we are slack to work for God, what shall we receive?

A Good servant.....serves well.!

Lesson 2

“It is hard to find good help these days.” How many times have we in joking said this statement to ourselves or others. But yet, how does God look at our service? Would we be seen as the good and faithful servant who has looked over what God has given (Matt.25:23), or will we be the one who is punished for slacking (Matt. 25:26)?

1. Of whom is a servant of God to serve?
2. What did Christ teach us in Matthew 23:8-12 that many today fail at when things of this world come into view?
3. How does a servant of God act about all things opposed to his Master?
4. What will a good servant of God do with whatever is entrusted to him? What is entrusted to him of God?

A Servant's Work Speaks for Itself

Lesson 3

Knowing full well that we should go and preach the gospel of God to every creature (Mark 16:15), there are some that will not hear what we have to say, but will see what we do. "What if the type is crooked, what if the speech is blurred?" asks the song often sing. What if this is so?

1. How is it that if we are the servants of God that we need to be, then others will see?
2. Will being a servant as God desires us to be cause us grief by those who do not serve Him? How?
3. In this life, will we as servants of God reach the end of our service?
4. How will being a good and faithful servant of God affect those who do not serve Him?
5. What is the reward of service to God and do we have any part in preparing this reward?
